Booking Conditions (or the boring small print)

- Bookings All Bookings must be made on a booking form, indicating all clients (clients) and be signed by the party leader (The client) and accompanied by a non-refundable deposit of £200 per person. No contract shall exist until the signed form and deposit have been received by Mark and Suzanne Hamilton (The partnership) and a confirmation/invoice has been issued to The client.
- Payment Full payment, less any deposits must be received by The partnership no later than 10 weeks prior to departure and in full if a booking is made within 10 weeks of departure. The client is responsible for all clients on the booking form. Failure to pay may result in the holiday being cancelled or discounts being disallowed.

- Amendments - Amendments must be made in writing by the client and take effect from the day received by The partnership.

Cancellations - Days prior to departure	% of total invoice retained by The partnership
More than 70 days	No refund as only deposit paid.
30 - 69 days	75%
0 - 29 days	100%

- Insurance All bookings are taken on the condition that the clients have arranged suitable winter ski insurance. We are unable to accept responsibility for any costs clients incur as a result of failure to take out adequate insurance.
- Accommodation The accommodation provided is only for the use of the client.
- Conduct, Damages and Personal Responsibilities It is expected that all clients will behave in a reasonable manner that does not disturb other clients. If a client fails to do so, the company reserves the right to cancel the contract immediately without any refund. Any damage caused by the clients must be paid for immediately, and will be charged at rate decided by The Partnership. Clients are responsible for the safety of their personal belongings, vehicles, money and documents. The chalet is normally locked. However, bedrooms are not locked.
- Brochure information Every effort is made to ensure that details given in the brochure/website and via communications are accurate. However, details can change between booking and the client taking the holiday. No claims are made by The partnership as to the size and decor of any of the rooms.
- Company Liability The partnership shall not be liable for any cancellations or amendments or loss made as a result of war, riot, civil strike, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, travel delays/problems, fire, weather (flood, avalanche, mud, snow conditions). Alterations to holiday arrangements are sometimes necessary and we reserve the right to make minor alterations. We will advise you of any minor alterations at the earliest opportunity. If a major change has to be made and provided it is not due to a force majeure, then you can accept the change, or an alternative holiday that we offer (if available), or you have the option to cancel your holiday and receive a full refund. If a major change is made within 56 days of departure compensation of £10 per person will be paid.. However, the change must not be due to a force majeure.

8 Skiing Clients ski at their own risk. The partnership will not be liable for injury of clients, even when in the company of the company's staff.

10. Travel Travel is the responsibility of each client. The partnership is not liable for any impact caused by changes to travel arrangements made by yourself or by weather interventions.

11. Complaints In the unlikely event of a problem occurring during the holiday the client is requested to report this to the chalet staff immediately in order that the partnership can endeavour to resolve any difficulties.
